MAY 7 -- GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY - WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

In his message for this World Day of Prayer for Vocations, Pope Francis reminds us:

In the depths of their heart, all missionary disciples hear this divine voice bidding them to “go about”, as Jesus did, “doing good and healing all” (cf. Acts 10:38). By virtue of baptism, every Christian is a “Christopher”, a bearer of Christ, to his brothers and sisters. This is particularly the case with those called to a life of special consecration and with priests, who have generously responded, “Here I am, Lord, send me!” With renewed missionary enthusiasm, priests are called to go forth from the sacred precincts of the temple and to let God's tender love overflow for the sake of humanity. The Church needs such priests: serenely confident because they have discovered the true treasure, anxious to go out and joyfully to make it known to all. As we beg Jesus today to send more priests and deacons and consecrated religious to serve His Church, let us remember that ALL OF US are called to spread the Gospel by our lives.

A PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS: Lord Jesus Christ, mercifully instill in our hearts the desire to dedicate our lives to you. Give us priests and deacons to stand at the altar, to teach the Gospel; religious brothers and sisters to teach the young, nurse the sick, and minister charity to all; zealous lay people to imitate You in their marriage, families, work, and community. Amen.

THE SACRAMENT OF FIRST PENANCE AND FIRST HOLY EUCHARIST

CONGRATULATIONS to the candidates who will receive their FIRST HOLY COMMUNION at the 10 o'clock Mass this Sunday. May this first sacramental visit of Jesus Christ, Son of God, find their hearts pure and full of love for Him!

May 7 – Fourth Sunday of Easter

HE CALLS US by name. After a long winter, spring finally arrives in the Yukon, sometime as late as May. When it comes, it is like a sudden revelation. First, a faint tinge of green sweeps across barren hillsides. In just days, trees burst out in full leaf. Long silent, held fast in a snow-covered land, life breaks free, filling the valleys and mountains to the brim. Renewed by the increasing warmth of the sun, northerners deeply savour this abundance of creation. How many times have I climbed high to try to take in this majesty even more deeply from the vantage of some mountain pasture? In the words of the Bard of the Yukon, Robert Service, “It's the beauty that thrills me with wonder, it's the stillness that fills me with peace.” No matter what we have suffered or how much we have been asked to endure, the hope-filled offer of new life presents itself over and over again to us physically and spiritually. In the Acts of the Apostles, Peter called out to the “corrupt generation” of his day. “Repent, and be baptized,” he urged. Do we hear the voice of Jesus, our Good Shepherd, calling today? What does Jesus tell us of his vocation? “I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.” Green pastures await us if only we enter through his gate. Michael Dougherty, Whitehorse, YT.
